(54) Title: STOCKINGS OF NO WEARING MARK

(57) Abstract: The present invention provides stockings of no wearing mark wherein a wearing portion is provided on an upper portion of the stockings and formed in the shape of lace, and spandex is selectively blended with the lace, thereby leaving no wearing mark in case of taking off the stockings; and a silicon member having a regular pattern is attachable on an inner side of the wearing portion or an inner side below the wearing portion, thereby leaving no wearing mark after wearing and preventing the upper portion from curling and slipping down by a strong frictional force.
